Headline:
Some rain today, but clear and dry overnight.

Today:
A largely cloudy start with patchy rain through the morning, this most persistent over high ground. Rain clearing southwards by the afternoon with sunny spells following behind from the north. Feeling rather warm in the sunshine with light winds. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying dry during the evening and overnight with lengthy clear spells. Breezy at times with a little patchy low cloud and hill fog forming overnight. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Friday:
Cloud, light rain, and drizzle soon arriving from the west on Friday morning and persisting throughout the day. Breezy, especially across the north coast. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Often cloudy with scattered showers and sunny spells on Saturday. Showers to start, then outbreaks of rain, heavy at times to follow on Sunday and into Monday. Feeling warm.
